

Grace Spletzer is the current Compliance Officer for Alpha Diagnostics, as well as one of the full-time CNIM intraoperative technologists on staff. She has been working as an IOM technologist since January 2010, and completed her certification through ASET in March 2011. She previously attended Notre Dame College, in South Euclid, Ohio, where she obtained a Bachelors of Science in Biology in May 2009. She is a current member of Western Society of END Technologists (WSET) and International Intraoperative Neuromonitoring Professionals.